

INVESTITURE CEREMONY

22 OCTOBER, 2021- 22

“A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way”.

—John Maxwell

A function of inauguration is representative of a heap of various significant parts of human existence development, conviction, confidence, obligation and truthfulness. These serious perspectives gain elevated gravity when it is youthful blood that is being contributed with the ability to change, the ability to revise, the ability to direct and in particular, the ability to learn.

A comprehensive instructive foundation preferably repeats the universe of man in a more modest, more serious, dense model that reflects the hierarchical construction and progressive system we follow on an everyday premise, while dissipating the fantasies and annihilating the deficiencies in the working of the genuine variant of the said model. Such models assist with cultivating the soul of administration, solidarity, ethical quality and discipline in the youthful personalities sustained under their umbrella, leading to very much shaped, mature personalities prepared to take on the difficulties that adulthood gets its wake.

On the cheerful morning of 22 October, 2021, meriting youthful gifts of our School were presented with the obligation of driving their School from the front with responsibility, certainty and capability. The Investiture Ceremony hence denoted the resuming of leadership skills by the young leaders after an unwelcomed long break of covid.

For the commencement of the event a lively and message-filled tune "Tu Pyar Ka Sagar Hai" was sung by the School ensemble brightening up the atmosphere followed by Lightning of Lamp by the Principal and the most punctual parents.

As quoted by the compeerer, "To bind us with the presence of the Almighty", Ganesh Vandana was performed. The elegant dancers elevated the ambience with their talent and fluidity of technique.

The school Head Girl, Head Boy, the Sports Captains, the Environment Secretaries and Prefects came marching to the Amphi theatre syncing to the drum beats. As the teacher, Ms. Kiran Jose called out their names donning them with apt descriptions; the leaders were presented with their honour badges by Mrs. Nidhi Jain, the Head of the school.

Our worthy Principal ma'am gave a moving discourse on the significance of being a leader. She trusted the new chamber to dive in their heels to convey the school program to a new and honorable height. She stressed on the qualities a pioneer ought to reflect and supported the ones who couldn't bear the obligations the function reached a wonderful conclusion with an enormous round of praise.

The Council members vowed to cling to the qualities and standards maintained by the school. Aside from their obligation towards school, these reps likewise promised their support of the country's bigger environment, honestly and fair-mindedly. The brilliant team of leaders walked together to more noteworthy statures of greatness and insight as one.

The young leaders swore to uphold the responsibilities of the school to the best of their abilities.

Head Girl - Era Sandhu and Head Boy - Priyanshu Sachdeva approached to propose the statement of gratitude for the gathering that included - the Principal, the Coordinator, the teachers, the parents and the students.

The 'School Hymn' was sung by the school choir followed by the school tune "Vidyalya Hamara Gyan Upwan" closing the service.

The occasion ended with a cheerful note with dulcet tunes of an inspirational tune "Geet Khushike Gungunate" sung by the school choir. The guests relished the day by capturing the moment in the deepest treasures of their heart.