

Describe one of your family members you spend the most time with.

Who is he/she?

What do you usually do together?

What kind of person he/she is?

Why you spend most of the time with him/her?

1. Family plays an important role in shaping our personality. On weekends, I along with my all other family members spend quality time.
2. The person I spend most time with is my mother. She is homemaker.
3. Whenever, I am free, I spend my time in her company. I learn lot of things from my mother. She is very good cook. I have learnt recipes of indian cuisines from her.
4. As, I have some plans to move abroad where my parents will not accompany me, I acquire different household skills from her. Not only this, Sometimes I go out with her fer shopping.
5. My mother is of good nature. She is too polite, amicable and caring. In any problem. I can always rely on her. She guides me for right path.
6. I love to spend time with my mother because of her calm nature. She is like my best friend who always leads me to right path. I remember when, I finished my high school, I wanted to join humanities stream as most of my friend choose that but my mother knew my interest and guided what was good for me.
7. I think she is my perfect guide. I really enjoy her company.
